Robbery of CSUF Student

On Sunday, September 6th, at around midnight, a Cal State Fullerton student was walking on the North side of Nutwood Avenue near Titan Drive, when he noticed a man staring at him from across the street. The man then ran toward him and attempted to throw a punch. The student was not hit, but the suspect continued to act aggressively toward the student. The suspect then demanded the student's cell phone. Once the suspect had the cell phone, he ran Southbound towards the area of Hope University and the LDS Church. The victim did not know the suspect.

The suspect is described by the victim as: Male "Asian", about 19 or 20 years old, approximately 5'6" tall, wearing a black t-shirt, white shorts, and his black hair was shaved on the sides but long in the middle in a pony tail.

If anyone has any information related to this case or incident, or may recognize the description of this suspect, please contact Detective Paul McClain at the Cal State Fullerton Police Department at (657) 278-2902.

Clery Crime Safety Tips:
• If you see something, say something
• Call 911 (goes directly to University Police Dispatcher when on or near campus) if you feel you are in danger and need immediate assistance. Or call University Police at 657-278-2515 for non-emergency matters.

Scot Willey
Administrative Captain
Cal State Fullerton Police Department
swilley@fullerton.edu or 657-278-2901

[This timely warning is compliant with the requirement of making timely reports of campus threats and providing crime tip information that will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences, as stated in 20 US Code, Subsection 1092, (f)(3).]