Who are we?

The Community Service Officers (CSOs) are civilian student assistants that are employees of the University Police Department. The Program is overseen by a sworn Police Officer with the rank of Corporal, and is a component of the Administrations Division of the University Police Department.

The CSO Program has been called upon to assist Building Marshals with building evacuations. The CSOs have been trained to assist with traffic control during emergencies such as traffic collisions. When fire alarms stop functioning in buildings around the campus, the CSOs conduct Fire Watch patrols. They also assist Investigations with evidence processing.

CSO Mission Statement:

To act as the eyes and ears of the University Police Department and ensure the safety of the campus community at California State University, Fullerton by providing dedicated service while establishing a working relationship between campus students, faculty/staff, and visitors.

What is the Escort Program?

The safety escort service provided by CSOs is for members of the campus community (students, faculty/staff, and visitors) who are in fear for their safety when walking from campus to their vehicle, class, or dorm on their own. Students are encouraged to use the buddy system when walking to the parking lots in the evening hours.

"I don’t feel safe walking to my dorm alone at night. What do I do?"

If you feel unsafe or if you have a short term injury, we will meet you any place on campus and accompany you where you need to go on campus. Please preprogram your cell phone with the University Police number:

(657)278-2515

in case of an emergency or if you need to call for an escort. A CSO will be dispatched to your location. The CSOs are not allowed to provide escorts outside of the campus.
