

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

INFORMATIONAL BULLETIN

Dennis DeMaio, Chief of Police

Wednesday, October 26, 2016

Campus Alert

The CSU Fullerton Police Department recently received a report of a male who was "aggressively touching himself" on the outside of his clothing on October 24, 2016, at approximately 9:00 am in CSUF Parking Lot S (South side of College Park). The male was described as having dark skin, dark hair, in his early 20's, and wearing white shorts and a gray CSUF sweater.

The reporting party recalled the same subject described above exposing himself in an apartment complex adjacent to Parking Lot S in June of 2016.

The unknown male subject was reportedly not aggressive in either incident. It is unknown if the suspect resides in an apartment close to campus.

If you encounter this person, move to a safe location and call the University Police by dialing 911 or 657-278-2515 (then press 0). If you have any additional information to provide regarding the incidents above, please contact the Detective noted below.

If anyone has any information related to this case or incident, please contact Detective Hollyfield at the Cal State Fullerton Police Department at (657) 278-2191.