Suspicious Person UPDATE

A Cal State Fullerton student and Willow dorm resident came forward and identified himself as the person described in the recent crime alert (3/7/18). He advised he was documenting the small animals and reptiles that live on campus grounds and had background as to why he was doing so. All parties agreed it was a misunderstanding. We want to stress how much we support these types of calls and follows our mantra of "See something, say something"! We applaud the residents for speaking out and are happy that this was a good outcome for all.

On Wednesday, March 7th, two female CSUF students reported an unknown male subject looking through their window at the Willow dorm building in Housing. The incident occurred on Tuesday, March 6th, 2018, at approximately 5:40pm. The suspicious person remained in the area for approximately 5 minutes. It was unknown which direction he left.

The subject is described as a male, "white", brown hair (short, straight), scruffy/short facial hair, approximately 5'5" to 5'6", approximately 170-180 lbs, wearing a bright blue t-shirt, a dark colored zip-up hooded sweatshirt, and dark colored jeans.

If you were witness to a similar incident or have any additional information relating to this matter, please contact CSUF Police Investigations at 657-278-2903 and speak with Detective Sergeant Patrick Launi. All members of the campus community play an important role in ensuring a safe campus environment.

Please report all crimes and any suspicious persons or behavior to the University Police at (657) 278-2515. In case of an emergency, always dial 911.
