Crime Alert

On Saturday, February 11th, 2017, at around 4:30 a.m., University Police Officers assisted the Fullerton Police Department searching for a male that attempted to rob another person. The incident occurred in the Piccadilly Square Apartment Homes to the east of the Mobil gas station at Yorba Linda Blvd. and Associated road, just to the north of the CSUF campus. The victim was not affiliated with CSUF.

The suspect was described as a white male, late 20's, wearing a black jacket, jeans and red ball cap. The suspect reportedly used a knife as a weapon and was last seen westbound on foot. Both agencies searched the surrounding areas but were unable to find the suspect.

If you encounter this person, move to a safe location and call 911 or the Fullerton Police Department at 714-738-6700. Or you can notify the University Police by dialing 657-278-2515 (press 1). If you have any information to provide regarding the incident above, please contact the Fullerton Police Department.

If anyone has any information related to this case or incident, please contact the Fullerton Police Department at 714-738-6700 or call University Police Investigations Unit at 657-278-2903 and we can forward the information to them.
