On 10/13/2015 at approximately 10:36pm, University Police received a report of an indecent exposure on the third floor of the CSUF Pollak Library. The suspect was described as an "Asian male", 19-21 years old, wearing a black tank top and had an unknown type tattoo on his left arm. The suspect sat in the adjacent cubicle to the victim and had positioned his chair, facing the victim while exposing himself.

All members of the community play an important role in ensuring a safe campus environment. The University Police is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to the campus community to provide support and police services. Please report any suspicious persons or behavior to the University Police at (657) 278-2515. In case of an emergency, always dial 911.

Clery Crime Safety Tips:
- If you see something, say something
- Call 911 (goes directly to University Police Dispatcher when on or near campus) if you feel you are in danger and need immediate assistance. Or call University Police at 657-278-2515 for non-emergency matters.

If you need additional support or assistance, please contact the many resources available on campus:
- WoMen's Center/Confidential Victim Advocate - (657) 278-3928
- Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS)/Confidential Counseling - (657) 278-3040
- Title IX Office - (657) 278-4207
- University Police Department for on-campus safety escort - (657) 278-2515
- Housing Business Hours - (657) 278-2168; after hours - (714) 681-6918
- Rape, Aggression & Defense (RAD) - http://police.fullerton.edu/rad/

Scot Willey
Administrative Captain
Cal State Fullerton Police Department
657-278-2901 or swilley@fullerton.edu

[This timely warning is compliant with the requirement of making timely reports of campus threats and providing crime tip information that will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences, as stated in 20 US Code, Subsection 1092, (f)(3).]