

UPD Training Submission Form (LIVE)

	Training Title	Training Description	Objective of Training	Does this training align with DEI practices?
64	CSUF PD General Order 5-6:Robbery/Burglary Alarm Response	Review and discuss CSUF PD General Order 5-6:Robbery/Burglary Alarm Response	To provide guidelines for armed robbery and burglary response at Titan Student Union (TSU) and University Hall Cashiers (JHC), Titan Bookstore (TB) or Schools First Credit Union (SFCU); and panic alarm response to the Visitor's Information Center (VIC) or Golleher Alumni House (GAH)	No
65	Axon TASER Drone: Assist in stopping mass shootings	Review and discuss the article on Axon announcing a TASER drone to help stop mass shootings.	Educate on different options during a mass shooting event through the use of new technology and updated equipment.	No
66	Portland Police Use Media Relations for Recruitment	Portland Police uses social media to recruit.	Alternative methods for training	Yes
67	Police from across the US discuss the 'perfect storm' of issues facing cities over the past two years	Review and discuss the article: Police from across US discuss 'perfect storm' of issues facing cities over the past two years https://www.foxnews.com/us/police-perfect-storm-major-cities	Stay updated on current law enforcement issues and collectively develop ways to improve on community relations	Yes
68	Felony Traffic Stop	Officers conducted 960X training in PS2 w/CSO participation	The objective of the training is to conduct stress inoculation training in high-stress situations so officers can operate more effectively under high stress.	No
69	California Sheriff's Office using VirTra simulator for Active Shooter Training	Review and discuss article/video clip: https://www.police1.com/police-products/virtual-reality-training-products/articles/calif-sheriffs-office-using-virta-simulator-for-active-shooter-training-SDhpmGce8dYsJpA6/	Stay current on new technology available to assist with training and preparing for critical incidents such as an Active Shooter.	No
70	10 Ways to Avoid Being Tracked Down at Home	Information omitted for officer safety	Information omitted for officer safety	No
71	Police Use of Force: Managing Risk and Mitigating Harm	Discussed controlling emotions during Use of Force encounters and the effect of adrenaline during and after physical confrontations. Difficulties in determining the end of resistance when multiple officers are involved. The necessity to maintain skill level.	To control combative subjects quickly minimizing the risk of injury to officers and suspects.	No
72	Seattle Police Stopped Investigating New Sexual Assault Cases this Year	The training article outlined the fact that due to staffing issues, sexual assault cases are not being investigated and sexual registrants are out of compliance due to lack of oversight.	To highlight the shortage of officers, not only in Seattle but everywhere around the country.	Yes
73	Arming Teachers with Guns	Pros and cons of arming teachers in schools.	Discussed the possibility of arming teachers to discourage and end active shooter incidents.	No
74	Big big driver stabs officer on traffic stop	The training was to discuss the importance of always putting the suspect at a disadvantage and for officers to always have the will to survive. The video showed a big rig driver receiving a citation while being allowed to sit inside the cab of his truck. Unexpectedly, he jumped down from the cab, grabbed a screwdriver he had in the door of his truck, and stabbed the officer several times in the neck.	Demonstrated the necessity to put suspects at a disadvantage, the importance of an officer's will to survive, and to always remain aware.	Yes
75	The Talk Continues Provost Thomas	How to Be Anti-Racist	Make people aware of racism and how to counteract it.	Yes
76	The Talk Continues	Carolyn Thomas is featured in the video series "The Talk Continues" and shared her very personal experience with racism.	The training discusses one person's personal experience with racism and how she wants to create a world of "anti-racism."	Yes
77	Use of Technology	Discussion on upcoming technologies from Axon related to drones, mental health, and VR training.	To provide those in attendance with an awareness of upcoming advancements in technology as reviewed in the recent Axon conference attended. We specifically discussed the use of tech in responding to individuals in a mental health crisis or those who may be disabled.	Yes
78	Title IX	Reporting and Documenting Title IX	Reporting and documenting Title IX per the CSUF website	No
79	CSUF Provost Carolyn Thomas video series "The Talk Continues"	Viewed and discussed CSUF Provost Carolyn Thomas's video series "The Talk Continues"	Collaborate on "A Journey Toward Anti-Racism" to expand knowledge and understanding of anti-racism through the lens of their multiple identities.	Yes
80	CSUF PD General Order 1-3: Code of Ethics and Manual of Rules	Reviewed CSUF PD General Order 1-3: Code of Ethics and Manual of Rules	To establish rules and regulations for all police department employees that address professional conduct and responsibilities. Adopt a Code of Ethics as a general standard of conduct for all police officers and a Code of Ethics as a general standard of conduct for all department personnel. All personnel will abide by this Code of Ethics.	Yes

	Training Title	Training Description	Objective of Training	Does this training align with DEI practices?
81	Federal Executive Order Regarding Police Reform	Review and discuss Federal Executive Order Regarding Police Reform	Stay current and up to date on legislative issues/reforms affecting law enforcement	Yes
82	Training Your Brain For Optimum Performance	The use of cognitive drills to train your brain to make decisions at a quick pace.	Using a series of drills to teach the brain to think and act. The idea is to make the correct decision quickly.	No
83	Time to Think: The smartest cop isn't the one with the quickest decision	Watch Lexipol tip of the day training video on "Time to think: The smartest cop isn't the one with the quickest decision" and discussed.	Encourage officers to think before they react to a situation if a split-second decision is not required.	Yes
84	Diversion Programs	The new Diversion program in North Carolina is aimed to help 18-24-year-olds who have been arrested on their first offense for a non-violent low-offense crime. They have had success in 92% of those involved in the program have not re-offended.	The purpose of the training is to show sometimes making an arrest may not be the only option. It is important to know that warnings and using other means to help people that may have committed a low level crime or infraction can still have a big impact in helping prevent future crimes.	Yes
85	Police One Article, "5 Stresses Cops Deal with that Non-Cops Should Know About"	Police One Article, "5 Stresses Cops Deal with that Non-Cops Should Know About"	The training was on issues that face officers such as daily preparation for battle and the possibility of not coming home, being prepared "off-duty" for any issues, the toll it takes on officers going from one high stressed call to another, the "higher standards" was held to both on and off duty and the mental and physical toll the job takes over time.	Yes
86	Off-Duty Response	How to respond off duty to an active crime being observed	Reminder to officers that when off duty, if we identify ourselves we become on duty at that moment. Officer safety training to remind officers that off duty we do not have our normal equipment, radios, and vests when dealing with a possible suspect. Sometimes when off duty, the best way to help with a crime in progress is to be a good witness.	No
87	Suspect Calls 911 Dispatcher to Call off Pursuit, citing New Law	A homeless man called 911 to state Seattle PD officers are not supposed to be pursuing him unless he is suspected of DUI or probable cause that a felony has been committed.	The objective of the training was to show how backwards we are as a country now and the criminals feel they have more power than the police.	No
88	Health and Wellness	Focusing on how mindset and mental toughness play a huge role in LE today.	Knowing the role of a police officer in today's society can be trying due to the current climate, in addition to most law enforcement agencies being short-staffed. It's important to focus your attention and energy on your sphere of control – the more you're able to do that, the more mentally tough and strong you'll be during these difficult times."	No
89	Why cops should talk less and listen more	2-minute video on how officers should actively listen rather than interrupt.	The objective of the training is to discuss how we can improve our investigation skills, report writing, and overall performance of the job by becoming great listeners.	Yes
90	Case Law Explained: Can a passenger leave a vehicle stop?	Passengers in Vehicle Stops: Brendlin v CA https://youtu.be/AdWxlhGDYJE	Street cop training podcast about case Brendlin v CA: All passengers in a vehicle on a traffic stop are detained and are not free to leave.	No
91	Physical Fitness in Law Enforcement	Importance of physical fitness in everyday law enforcement operations to reduce injury and improve cardiovascular health.	A video was shown of a physical altercation.	No
92	Video Surveillance Requests	Sgt. Brown discussed the portal for video surveillance requests.	-Assist Investigations with uploading surveillance related to a specific case. -Allows the footage to be retained and not deleted because of time restraints.	No
93	S.T.E.A.R.R.D.	Strategic Traffic Enforcement Against Racing and Reckless Driving. Discussed different CVC for street racing and street takeovers. Multi-Agency assist with large street takeovers.	To target street takeovers	No
94	Warrantless Searches/Situational Awareness During Traffic Stops	Exceptions to warrantless searches, case laws. Situational Awareness training (Naperville traffic stop shooting)	Watched a video that showed a traffic stop where a suspect came from the opposite direction with an ax. It's important to remain aware of your surroundings and not let your guard down.	No
95	Dealing with Suicidal Subjects	Review the risks involved with responding to suicidal subjects.	Examples were shown on how to communicate with suicidal subjects and skills to de-escalate. Examples of how to control a scene should a subject decide to take action which would require an officer to defend themselves.	No
96	Video Surveillance Requests and LAPD Officers Pelted with Bottles when responding to Fireworks	Training on a new way to request video footage. Officer safety when assisting outside agencies with firework calls.	Discussed a new way to request video surveillance footage for cases. Discussed the importance of officer safety when responding to firework calls with large crowds of people where the gathering becomes an unlawful assembly.	No
97	Why cops should talk less and listen more	Cops need to take the time to listen to suspects and victims. Try not to talk over them and let them communicate the way they need to.	The objective of the training is to emphasize the importance of listening when interacting with the public. Whether they are suspects or victims, sometimes we just need to listen because they may give us the information we need for the case.	Yes
98	Why Cops Should Talk Less and Listen More	Gordon Graham discusses why listening is more beneficial often times than continuously talking.	Training video on listening more to suspects than speaking.	Yes

	Training Title	Training Description	Objective of Training	Does this training align with DEI practices?
99	Police Response to the Uvalde Texas school shooting	Review of the lack of action by police and possible causes.	To impress upon officers the importance of the need to act to stop the killing. To show officers the public's expectation that we act decisively to save lives by stopping the threat.	No
100	US v Forrest	Reasons for the automobile exception apply to the trailer.	Large trailers (semi-truck) and small trailers (RV) apply the same standard for the automobile exception clause, meaning if officers have probable cause to believe there is contraband inside an attached trailer, officers do not need a warrant to search the trailer pursuant to the automobile exception. "Absolutely secure storage facilities may not be available...and the size and inherent mobility of a vehicle make it susceptible to theft or intrusion of vandals." Additionally, the expectation of privacy in a trailer is no greater than that of an automobile.	No
101	Legal Case Law Update	Criminal history and warrant checks as a part of the "Mission" of a traffic stop.	To refamiliarize officers with the concept of illegally prolonging detention on a traffic stop. Also to update on new case law which reinforces the legal concept that a records check including driver's status, criminal history, and warrant check does not unreasonably prolong the detention of the driver/passengers during a traffic stop.	No
102	Wyoming v. Houghton, 526 US 295 (1999)	Vehicle search of passenger containers (purse) during a lawful search of a vehicle.	SCOTUS ruling that absent exigency, the warrantless search of a passenger's container capable of holding the object of a search for which there is probable cause, is not a violation of the Fourth Amendment to the US Constitution because it is justified under the automobile exception as an effect of the car.	No
103	Supreme Court Ruling on Gun Control	Discussion on Supreme Court ruling on gun control in NY, and how it affects California.	-Discussion on Open carry "due cause" needed for California -Effects on law enforcement and how it changes our response -Does not change prohibited individuals from getting CCW - Certain locations still barred carrying	No
104	Police Asking for ID	When it is appropriate to request identification for passengers inside a vehicle.	Discussion regarding when officers can order someone to ID themselves and when they cannot. (ex. Passengers do not have to present ID when driver has been stopped for CVC unless they're involved in a crime).	No
105	Report Writing	Report writing tips	Video from Police One website on tips on how to write a good police report. Video went over the importance of documenting an incident correctly and with good information.	No
106	Vehicle Pursuits	Oklahoma Highway Patrol Pursuit Case and CSUF PD General Order 4.2: Pursuit Policy	OKHP video shows officer pursuing suspect while being fired upon and utilizing PIT maneuver at high speeds. CSUF PD pursuit policy two units only and monitored by supervisor.	No
107	SCOTUS Vega v. Tekoh	Sworn personnel discussed how this decision would effect how we conduct our investigations/arrests.	-Officers cannot be held civilly liable when there is a failure to mirandize a suspect. -Evidence presented after failure to mirandize will result in possible suppression of evidence.	No
108	Tourniquet Application	Officers discussed applying tourniquets.	-Officers became familiar with what tourniquets fellow officers carry -Discussed different types of bleeding -Discussed scenarios on when to apply tourniquet	No