

CAL STATE FULLERTON POLICE DEPARTMENT TRAINING

TRAINING TITLE

Embassy Consulting: Building a Safe, Respectful and Inclusive Workplace and Community

TRAINING DESCRIPTION

This interactive eight-hour training course is designed specifically for law enforcement and public safety professionals. The goal of this training is to provide participants with knowledge, awareness and skills in order to build a safe, respectful and inclusive workplace and community.

OBJECTIVE

The training focused on self and social awareness, implicit and explicit bias, empathy, responsible decision-making and many other aspects that are needed in modern day policing.

The training sought to increase our SEL competencies, which includes social and emotional learning and is the process through which adults understand and manage emotions, set and achieve positive goals and feel and show empathy for others.
